AAF Gives Back to the Community During the Holiday Season

Alexander, Aronson, Finning & Co. is delivering thousands of dollars in holiday toys to deserving children of all ages at the Associated Early Care & Education Center, an AAF client. Associated Early Care is committed to providing high quality, affordable child care to Boston's working families and their children. Jack Finning, AAF Vice President, stated, "I'm proud that AAF team members have come together to collect gifts for families in need. It's important to remember the children especially during these hard economic times."

AAF team members Laurie Lockwood and Doreen Long pose with gifts.
