The Boston Globe names Alexander, Aronson, Finning & Co. to Top Places to Work 2010

Boston, MA November 8, 2010 – Alexander, Aronson, Finning & Co., P.C. was honorably named a 2010 Boston Globe Top Places to Work winner. In addition to ranking #2 on the Top Places to Work list in the small size category (100 – 250 Massachusetts employees), AAF is ranked #1 in Careers and #5 in Ethics.

The Top Places to Work recognizes the most progressive companies in the state based on employee opinions about company leadership, compensation and training, diversity/inclusion, career development, family-friendly flexibility, and values and ethics. Private companies and nonprofits as well as publicly-held businesses were included in the analysis.

The Globe invited 1,160 employers to participate in the third annual Top Places to Work. Research partner WorkplaceDynamics of Exton, Pa., specialists in employee engagement and retention, contacted employees at those companies and asked to grade their organization's performance according to 23 distinct statements, ranging from "This organization demonstrates it values employees during difficult times" to "It's easy to tell my boss the truth."

The publisher of The Boston Globe Chris Mayer stated, "Each of the companies included in the Top Places to Work 2010 deserve recognition for creating a positive workplace for their employees. Their accomplishment adds to the vitality of this state's business environment."

Alexander, Aronson, Finning & Co. is a certified public accounting firm with over 35 years experience in accounting, auditing, and business consulting. AAF provides a wide range of services including accounting and auditing, tax compliance, non-profit accounting and consulting, estate and gift planning, litigation support, succession planning, and business valuation.
