

Business Valuation

Understanding the nuances of determining market value of your business is critical for well-informed decision making and financial success.

As a business owner or investor, having an accurate and realistic understanding of the value of your business or the value of your shares in a business is critical to strategic decision-making and planning. Our experienced business valuation professionals have a combination of formal education, diverse work experience, and continuous hands-on exposure to the nuances of what determines value. This ensures that AAFCPAs' clients are able to confidently build, defend, preserve, and transfer the value of their privately-owned business.

We take into consideration emotional components.

Your business is likely your largest and most important asset, and you probably have a strong emotional connection to it. It is not just the source of your income and wealth, but may be a major component of your identity and purpose. We appreciate how much time, energy, and money you have invested in building a successful business. AAFCPAs' business valuation professionals are mindful of the emotional aspects of business transactions, and passionate about creating client-centered processes and enhancing communication between buyers and sellers.

Our team members are qualified to uphold any Daubert challenge.

AAFCPAs' litigation support expertise provides attorneys with the tools and resources needed to successfully litigate any case with the utmost confidence. We possess the education, training and experience to defend any report, calculation, or analysis done by our firm in a litigation environment. We are industry leaders in our field with the proven ability to provide thorough and well-written reports, and confidently and clearly communicate results on the witness stand to a judge or a jury. Our experts have been qualified in both Superior Court and the Probates Court in Massachusetts.

About AAFCPAs

AAFCPAs is an attractive alternative to the Big 4 and National CPA firms. We provide best-value assurance, tax, business consulting, and information technology advisory solutions to nonprofit organizations, commercial companies, wealthy individuals, and estates. Since 1973, AAF's sincere approach to business and service excellence has attracted discerning clients along with the best and brightest CPA and consulting professionals. AAF donates 10% of its net profits annually to nonprofit organizations.
